

Dossier - Dossier - The Apostles of Jesus, Africa's first Religious Missionary Institute. 40th anniversary

The first African religious missionary Institute

The founders, Bishop Sisto Mazzoldi MCCJ and Father Giovanni Marengoni MCCJ

Charisma and Mission

Structure and administration

Apostolic Communities in the world and statistics

Activities, pastoral work, development programmes and assistance

The Evangelising Sisters of Mary, female branch

Association of the Friends of the Institute (AFAJ)

INTERVIEWS

“Africa still need missionaries from the rest of the world, just as the rest of the world needs missionary from Africa”. Fides interviews Fr Speratus Kamanzi AJ, Superior General of the Apostles of Jesus ”.

“Even today I am still profoundly influenced by the missionary life of my uncle, Bishop Sisto Mazzoldi”.

Interview with Fr Angelo Benolli OMV, director of Italia Solidale Onlus

> LINKS

The Apostles of Jesus, Africa's first Religious Missionary Institute. 40th anniversary:

http://www.fides.org/eng/documents/apostles\_of\_jesus\_aug\_08\_eng.doc: