

EUROPE/POLAND - Pilgrimage of Missionary Childhood of the Archdiocese of Czestochowa for the sending of missionary children and young people

Czestochowa (Agenzia Fides) – On Saturday, December 17, the Pontifical Society of Missionary Childhood of the Archdiocese of Czestochowa has promoted a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of the Rosary, in Myszków Mrzyglód where the material prepared for the animation of this missionary period will be presented, especially the missionary catechesis on the Church in Sudan, and the missionary sending of children and young people will be celebrated. The initiative will include all the leaders of the Pontifical Mission Societies (PMS) of the Archdiocese, along with the Archdiocesan Director, don Jacek Gancarek. The different missionary groups of children and young people have been invited: the voluntary missionary, animators, groups of the Rosary, the Militia Immaculatae, groups of POM of different parishes and schools of the Archdiocese of Czestochowa. The Mass will be presided by His Exc. Mgr. Stanislaw Nowak, Archbishop of Czestochowa. "We want children and young people to give new spiritual strength to the Missionary Societies of our archdiocese", said don Jacek Gancarek Fides, PMS Diocesan Director of Czestochowa. (MF/SL) (Agenzia Fides 14/12/2011)