

AFRICA/LIBYA- A security officer at the Italian Embassy in Tripoli wounded

Tripoli (Agenzia Fides) - A security officer at the Italian Embassy in Tripoli was wounded by a gunfire shot on Saturday, March 24. This was reported to Fides by local sources. The man, whose name is not mentioned for security reasons, seems he was shot in the back by a stray bullet. The wounded man was transported to Saint James Hospital for surgery. His life does not seem to be at risk. (L.M.) (Agenzia Fides 26/3/2012)